Lebanese Republic
Ministry of Justice
International Cooperation Department

Extradition Request

-1- Determining the requesting authority
Determining the government of the State or the authority that issued the extradition request

---

-2- Determining the authority that is receiving the request
Determining the authority that is required to execute the extradition request:
For example, the Ministry of Justice, the Public Prosecution or any other competent authority in the Lebanese State.

-3- Determining the data of the person subject to extradition

Full name
Mother's name
Title
Nationality
Place and date of birth
Profession
Permanent, potential or future place of residence
Passport data
Descriptions and distinctive marks
Criminal record
Any other data that are useful to identification

-4- Legal and real data of the case

Offense facts

Place of perpetrating the offense
Time of perpetrating the offense
Way of perpetrating the offense
Legal description of the crime (theft, murder, deception, fraud…)

Lebanese Republic
Ministry of Justice
International Cooperation Department

Available evidence and suspicion

Legal provision in the requesting State: Mentioning the legal provision that requires criminalization in the requesting State.

```
┌─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┐
│                                                         │
│                                                         │
│                                                         │
│                                                         │
└─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┘
```

Proof of close relationship

Between the alleged acts and the measure required in the receiving State

```
┌─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┐
│                                                         │
│                                                         │
│                                                         │
│                                                         │
└─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┘
```

Mentioning the legal provision that requires criminalization in the State receiving the request if the offense is determined.
or mentioning that such acts must be considered as a crime in the receiving country.

Penalty

```
┌─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┐
│                                                         │
│                                                         │
└─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┘
```

Legal provisions applied to the crime

```
┌─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┐
│                                                         │
│                                                         │
└─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┘
```

Legal basis of the extradition request

```
┌─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┐
│                                                         │
│                                                         │
└─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┘
```

Content of the request

```
┌─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┐
│                                                         │
│                                                         │
│                                                         │
└─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┘
```

-5- Attachments

Copies to be attached:

- Documents that may enlighten the request
- Legal provisions to be applied and legalized as certified true copies by the requesting authority

---

The extradition request shall be addressed through:
☐ The Ministry of Justice and has to be sent to the Appeal Prosecution

In case of urgency and absolute necessity: justification is required

---

Date:
Signature and seal: